We will again be portraying the Entourage of the Duke of Orkney, complete with Nobles, Guards, & Highlanders. We are looking forward to all of us interacting with Her Majesty's Court (as portrayed by St. Gyles) & all other guilds, to include a multi-guild battle. This will be great fun & an excellent opportunity to stretch your characters & acting skills. The faireboard requires a signed waiver to participate in this event. If you have not yet turned yours in to

Lord Bothwell, do so ASAP. Admission tickets are being provided to our members who have committed to attending this grand event. Saturday after hours the faireboard will host a BBQ for re-enactors, providing meat and beer. If you plan to attend, please bring a 2 quart salad in a disposable container to share with all. You are responsible for refrigerating your food item if it is needed. No dessert will be provided, so if you have a sweet tooth bring something for yourself and your best friend. The guild will provide you with a placesetting (plate, utensils, napkins), you will of course clean up after yourself. Actors camp is on site for gatelisted re-enactors Thursday through Sunday nights, overnight guests are not allowed, quiet hour is 10PM to 6AM. Please be courteous campers. Dame Rose of Galbraith is the Actors Camp coordinator, please don't ruffle her feathers. There may still be spots for RV's

In preparation for our first performance at the All Hallows Fantasy Faire in October where we will portray the Court of the Dead with the reigning Queen of the Dead, Dame Annebell will be holding workshop to teach you how to do "nearly dead/dead/walking dead" makeup. For those unable to attend in September, a second session will be held on October 16. When attending the workshop please bring a snack to share. Contact Dame Annebell for more information and to RSVP at annebell1562@yahoo.com or (925) 833-8132. Some folks have an aversion to wearing makeup and may instead wear a mask similar to Dance Macabre.
