We will again be portraying the Entourage of the Duke of Orkney, complete with Nobles, Guards, & Highlanders. We are looking forward to all of us interacting with Her Majesty's Court (as portrayed by St. Gyles) & all other guilds, to include a multi-guild battle. This will be great fun & an excellent opportunity to stretch your characters & acting skills. Admission tickets have been provided to our members who have committed to attending this grand event. Lady Gwendolyn Elliot will be knighted on Saturday at 2PM.

After hours on Saturday there will be a Knighting Dinner, please contact Lady Fleming at LadyFleming1562@yahoo.com for details as you need to RSVP by Saturday August 25. Also after hours on Saturday is a Living History potluck in the covered picnic area near the Living History area. Each guild is doing their own thing. During the potluck will be a Memorial Service for James Austin/Rohan of the Highland Warriors who recently lost a hard battle with cancer. Clan Galbraith has also opened their Actor's Camp encampment during the evening for those who would like to gather and share fond memories of Rohan. Actors Camp is available, it is cramped so cozy your tent up to your neighbor and be courteous. There may still be spots for RV's <http://www.caledonian.org/campingregistrationform.html> (through the Games on site) or frontdesk@alamedacountyfair.com (925) 426-7600 (through the fair grounds and where several of our RV members are staying on the fairgrounds). A list of hotels is at <http://www.caledonian.org/games/lodgingtransportation.html>

We have been invited to participate in this event as the Royal Court and are excited to do so! This is a fantastic Celtic Music Festival and a fundraiser for KVMR radio. The music goes on until 10PM, so we will have a skeleton crew Saturday 6PM-10PM, socialize, kibitz with the wandering patrons, a relaxed evening of fun. Teardown will be late on Sunday, we will stage our props after tearing down and packing up, with loading the truck on Monday AM and unload at the Keep later in the day. All hands that can stay until Monday AM will be greatly appreciated. Please remember there are no elves, there is only you. Actors' Camp is available on site with showers and flushies, RV sites may still be available. If you want an RV site with hookups contact Producer John Taber at 530-913-9153.

Join Her Majesty and Lord Cullen in Escalon, Lady Fleming in San Leandro, and Sir James and Dame Mariota in Antioch at any or all of their Guild House Meetings. These members have generously opened their homes to fellow guild mates and those interested in learning more about St. Andrew's. Join them for an evening of socializing and learning about garb, history, language and other exciting aspects of 16th Century life, and about Renaissance Faires! Bring a snack to share and your favorite beverage. Please contact the Guild House Lairds and Chatelaines at the above listed email addresses prior to attending a meeting to verify the above dates, times and locations.
