As well as any beverage of thyne own choosing.

As you arrive place your potluck item in the fridge if needed, otherwise place your item on the buffet table. No one is going to do this for you.

Tables will be decorated with a white table cloth and a runner. You are welcome to bring additional table decorations for your table if you wish.

Each and every member will be presented to Her Majesty by Household. Your Head of Household will give a brief introduction (ie. Lady SoandSo), at which time you will have the opportunity to further introduce yourself to Her Majesty, explaining who you are and why you are in Her Court.

Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall.

A SCENE FROM THE PHOTOPLAY.

Mary Pickford Edition.

You may make any presentations following the meal. This is another opportunity for you to impress Her Majesty. Her Majesty would certainly enjoy your gift of poetry, toast or song.

And of course, if not already paid, your annual taxes are due. Checks should be made payable to "St Andrew's Noble Order of Royal Scots"

Under 18 - no dues

A Missive from Captain Craig:

PRAY HEED !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

To start 1562 (2014ish) off this next season. We are announcing a Mandatory Royal Guard practice/training day Saturday on Feb 22, at 12pm in the shire of El Dorado. Capt Innes hosts this at El Dorado Hill Community Park, which is located at the intersection of El Dorado Hills Blvd & Harvard Wy. We hope to have 3 training/practices days this year. A second before summer and 3rd right after summer. As our household grows and becomes more active, we will try to bring back more traditions. We hope to put together weapons related training and safety classes, as well as shield/targe and leather craft work days. It's all being discussed still. I hope this helps! Capt., Sir Craig
