Our second year at this event, Her Majesty will hold a Royal Guard Extravaganza, with the Squiring of Lord Angus MacAndrew, the Swearing in of Sir Maitiu de Faoite and Lord Cole Melville, perhaps a promotion or two, and of course the Annual Paying of the Guard. We'll throw in Biscuits with Her Majesty for the wee ones, and all will be happy. Let's take this opportunity to focus on recruiting for both the Royal Guard and Noble Households.

The ground is a bit uneven at this event, wear footwear that supports your ankles and protects you from stickers.

~ All Guild Mandatory Training ~
Saturday, April 26
Time & Location TBA

"Our first Guild Training of the season is approaching, and your attendance is required. Let's get off on the right foot! Basics of a day in court will be covered. Garb and accessories will be discussed.

Etiquette in and out of court may also be discussed. More details to follow. Our younger members need to attend this training also as they are all getting to the age where they need to be well versed in these basics as well. This is a non-garbed event. Mark your calendars and plan to attend. Please bring your attention, as well as a snack to share, your lunch and your favorite beverage."

Please join us as we present life in 16th century Scotland to students at Excelsior Middle School in Byron. Typically we talk about weapons of the era, daily life, court life, history of Scotland, dress, perhaps some dancing. What we present is somewhat dictated by which of our members attend. School events are fun (and help us maintain our non-profit status), and the kids are little sponges with some very interesting questions. Please arrive early if you need to dress on site.

Usually, a feast is provided by St. Mary's and a light lunch is usually provided by Excelsior. In this time of budget constraints, please be appreciative of whatever is provided. Join us if you can! For more information on these and other school events, please contact Mistress Cailin rua Kelly Seaton at noelk00@yahoo.com
