Saint Andrews Noble Order of Royal Scots Guild

October 2002

Greetings unto the good folke of St. Andrews,

As We conclude this year of progresses We do express great thanks and do say with all truth that We are most proud and pleased with Our royal court. Verily, We have seen much growth and change. As with most moments in life, 'tis a matter of trial and error to find those things that do offer improvement and betterment to the guild.

Our year didst conclude with a visit to Truckeeshire and the faire at Stirling. We could think not of a better way to conclude Our progresses than attending this event most magnificent. Our dear sister, Lady Jean wast the brains behind this lovely event. Twas her managing that didst bring many guilds and vendors into the mountains with much comraderie and cooperation. We look forward to what the next year bringeth.

As this year doth end We bid a fond adieu to those members who be departing St. Andrews to make their fortune in the wide world beyond. We wish ye luck of the best kind and shalt be delighted whence our paths again cross. Thy final huzzah shalt be Winters Feast. The revelry planned is most anticipated and We do hope all shalt attend and make merrie.

Until then, We remain thy loving monarch,

MARIA

Good Folk of St. Andrews

Greetings this daye! It is with great honor that I send forth my thanks to all of our good folk whom have worked so hard this past year – you have helped St. Andrews become a great place to play! It is sometimes a lot of work and takes great effort to put our Court on progress, and it is wonderful to have such loyal and hard working supporters!

As we call an end to this season, and look to the next ~ I will be calling on all St. Andrews folk, both old and new, to work to keep the Royal Court ROYAL. That is the challenge being set forth for all households and all individuals for next year! 2004 saw many changes, if you attended any event this year I'm sure you noticed some, such as the look of our Court set-up. Let me assure you – there were even more behind the scenes! We are interested in your feed back, and if you were unable to attend the BBQ, you can give me your feedback directly.

2005 will certainly bring more changes, and we strive for them all to be beneficial to St. Andrews and Her Royal Majesty, so if you have suggestions, let us hear from you!

I anxiously await our grandest event of the year: Winter's Feast! It will mark the end of my first full year as Guild Master of St. Andrews. Something to celebrate, I hope you will all join me! I look forward to seeing you all there – it's an event not to miss!! A time for us to come together in merriment, to reminisce on the season just completed, and the one afore us! I'll see you there!

I do remain ever at your service,

Sir Drew Douglas MacQuain

Duke of Dunvegan Castle

Lord Chancellor of Scotland and the Isles

Cardinal Knight of the Knights and Dames of Saint John of Jerusalem

First Knight of Saint Andrews

œFrom the Quill of Don Juanœ

Dear Members of Saint Andrews,

We recently put on a school assembly at Walters Junior High where our own Lady Katie Ní Briain attends. We were well received and the children were very attentive. We are quickly discovering that an hour just doesn't give us enough time to discuss the many topics our members are versed in. Some of these topics include etiquette, clothing, weapons and armor.

I would like to thank our volunteers, without whom we would not be able to do these events:

Mary Stuart

Noreen Ní Briain

Mariota Ares

James Stewart

Guy Maxwell

Katie Ní Briain

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank each and every member who was able to attend a school event this year. I raise you up in my eyes to the highest level of nobility and honor.

My thanks and gratitude!

✧ A Missive from Maitiur

At the onset of this missive I must apologize for my inadequate knowledge of all that occurred with my fellow Irish at Pittsburg and Pleasanton. I expect to lease out some important details and for these omissions I am sorry.

I was fortunate to have time off from my employment to be present at the loading, unloading prior to and after Pittsburg. As hard as I worked it was but a pittance to the work of Heber, the MacGregors and the MacQuains.

Pittsburg was unique to me as Captain of the Irish. I actually had troops to command. While the women of our house have martial skills without peers it is not the same. On this weekend I had Declan, Liam, Seamus, Naccadin and even my Captain Morgan to stand by my side. Our opponents, The Rat Bastards, portrayed English troops garrisoned in Ireland. Their leader, Sir Charles, is a lovely man for an usurping, diabolical heretic. Our fight was grand and on Sunday none of the Irish died. Usually I am killed in the battle pageant. Survival to the end was a first for me. There was one casualty however, it was my voice. Shouting Abu (Onward), Bu (Victory), and Eog an Bealach (Clear the Way), wreaks havoc on the vocal cords.

Sitting in the Wicked Eye with my lads, drinking watery Scottish ale and singing songs was delightful. We sang "Isn't It Grand Boys" and "The Boys of the Old Brigade" and Naccadin recited a group favorite, "Johnny Jump Up". We even sang for Her Majesty, who politely grimaced as we squawked out our songs for her.

Our Taoiseacht (Chieftain), Aislinn, gathered us together to practice our new skit. It is a great skit full of historical facts. It is educational and dramatic and involves a number of other households.

Aislinn's energy and creativity never ceases to amaze me.

Our parades are spirited. Morianne, Noiri-n and Etain are not only beautiful to the eye but pleasant to the ear with their exuberant cheers and chants. I would be remiss if I didn't thank my wife and children Do'nal and Maire for their support. Maire made a lot of favors for both Pittsburg and Pleasanton.

Pleasanton was lovely although I did miss the bagpipes calling revelry in the early morning. The weather was good for sleeping at night even if the days were toasty. Our Taoiseacht was ill and regrettably not present and our numbers were fewer at this event. Nevertheless Noiri-n and Morianne stepped up as oft times before to provide adequate leadership.

Since I live (but not for long enough) for the battle pageants, I was glad to be included in 3 of the 4 events. For the sake of authenticity I had to sit out Preston Pans but it was great fun to watch for a change. After hours the Caledonian Club proved quite generous with free meat and ale. I heard Katie ni'Briain sing like a lark in the morning. There was an after hours football game in the actor's camp pitting the youth of St. Andrew's including Andrew MacCarraig and my own Do'nal and friend against the old boys of Galbraith, Frazer and meself. Needless to say, youth prevailed despite being somewhat anesthetized by uisce bheatha (water of life, aka whiskey) and that free ale.

The future for us is uncertain but at least we had this one shining moment. To our Scottish neighbors we say thanks for making a place for us in your world.

Slainte agus Saol (Health & Life).

Her Majesty's Jewels

Good Daye My Poppets,

We have our second two recipients of the grand Phoenix award. I hope that all of you will offer Lady Jeanette MacCarraig, and Lord Ian MacCarraig hearty congratulations as the most recent honorees of this award. Lady Tory MacNeil was also honorably mentioned! Keep up the good work!

Again, to become a member of the coveted "Order of the Phoenix", you must follow these guidelines:

Recipient must/may:

- ❖ be under 16 years of age
- ❖ follow all Children's House & Guild rules at all times (including Attendance check ins)
- ❖ Be an extremely hard and conscientious worker
- ❖ only receive this award one time

Big Hugs!

Lady Kyra Alura MacNeil
Chamberlain of the Children's Household

The Dogs of War

Good Day Gentlemen of the Guard,

As we are winding down to the end of the 2004 faire season, we are already starting to make big plans for next year and years to come. I want to thank all those that were able to attend this year's events and I hope that you all can make it to Winter's Feast.

We are planning a dining out for the off season, I hope everyone can make it. Invitations for this event will be sent to each of the members of the guard when the planning is complete.

Have a wonderful and safe holiday season, and please remember to use the guards chat group to stay in touch with everyone. I am looking forward to a grand 2005 faire season and hope that the guards unit will continue to grow and prosper.

In the words of your captain, "We are the Dogs of War! WOOF!"

Happy Holidays,

Sir Keegan & Dame Shaila Gunn

œClatter from the Highlandsœ

A hearty good marrow to all folk of St. Andrew's and Her Majesty's Court!

'Tis been a grand year with folk of the Highlands bringing two new additions of a fire pit and a grand shade canopy to the encampment, both welcome additions bringing much appreciated shade and roast beast. We have enjoyed folk spending time in the Wicked Aye Tavern working their craft, Mistress Jessica with her sewing, Master Thomas mixing black powder, Sir William Maitland making chain mail, and Mistress Derabhail playing her fiddle. We have welcomed new folk into the Highlands, with Heber, Fiounnola, and Jeremy to name a few. Since our last missive, we have enjoyed Pittsburg Faire where we debuted the fire pit, fought and died in battle, and were witness to the knighting of Dame Raven Sinclair.

I do extend my sincerest thanks to those who participated in Dame Raven's Friendship Circle after faire on Saturday at Pittsburg. Dame Raven was truly touched by the Circle and I am grateful for your participation.

We are always well received by the 21st century public at Pleasanton Games and this year was unequalled. So many folk did express their enjoyment and love of Her Majesty's Court and the opportunity to meet Her Majesty. 'Twas rather warm, but Heber remedied the weather by performing many a drubbing at the stocks.

Truckee was our last faire of the season and Lady Jean could not have brought us better weather or a more wondrous faire. We roasted meat all weekend long, Mistress Katherine played her flute throughout the weekend. 'Twas truly magical to hear her music waft through the encampment. Old friends stopped to talk and play, to include Moira and Iain "The Black" MacLeod. 'Twas a grand weekend to end our faire season.

I speak for all Highland folk when I say we do look forward to the splendor and magic of Winter's Feast. Ye will not see Highland folk working in the kitchen this Feast, as they too will be enjoying the evening with all of St Andrew's. We look forward to an evening of merriment, food, drink, and companionship! Highland folk will spend the Winter replenishing our wardrobes, creating new music and gigs for Her Majesty's delight, and perhaps a coo or two may wander away from it's owner into our possession (we do have bairns to feed and cloth over the long winter months). I look forward to seeing all of St Andrew's at Winter's Feast and Prop Repair Days!

œA Winter's Feast Asideœ

Good Folk of St Andrew's,

As we near Winter's Feast, I ask that ye remember that this is indeed a feast. When bringing food for the feast, please do NOT bring health & safety type viands. Prithee, leave your pickles, chips, salami, cheese, etc. at home. A bag of chips does not a side dish make. The operative word is FEAST. Also, do remember to bring your MUG/GOBLET and assist any guests in doing the same.

We will have professional, hired help in the kitchen. Please remember, that they do not know you from Adam (or Eve). Please do not expect them to keep track of your things/dishes, even if your name is on the bottom. Do not bring dishes/platters/bowls that you are worried about. If you bring food on a silver platter, etc at the end of the evening it will no doubt be washed and packed in the silver trunk. It is not reasonable to expect the worker bees to examine every item before it goes in the trunk for a name engraved on the bottom, nor is it reasonable to expect them to remember that 8 hours ago you pointed out that a certain platter is your personal property.

PLEASE, leave your treasured platters, serving spoons, etc. at home and save yourself some grief. The kitchen help will transfer your dish/food from the disposable container you bring it in to a guild platter/bowl/plate, etc. The guild also has a supply of serving utensils.

The kitchen help will NOT BE COOKING. They are servers, carvers, and cleaner-uppers. Please make sure the food you bring is already fully prepared. The kitchen is small and there is not room for more than the kitchen staff.

GRAMERCY!

The Ambassadors have had a great year of faire!
We really enjoyed the new walls for our pavilion (thank you Your Grace!) as they did help to keep us out of the wind (at the colder faires) and the sun (at the hotter ones!). It was our honor at many events to feast with Her Majesty, and we did truly enjoy it.

⚡Thor's Hammer Royal Honors⚡

At the beginning of all of the Faires where we perform, the Star Chamber is asked to take most particular note of outstanding efforts during the event. At the end of the weekend, a vote is cast amongst them, and a Thor's Hammer is awarded during the Hug Circle to that person whom the majority agree made the greatest individual contribution to our success. This is a once in a lifetime award, a signal honor, and is worn proudly by each recipient, for all who look thereupon shall honor them as they well deserve, as one of the most valued supporters of our Guild.

Beannachtaí Mór an Saoire, a Charaí!
(Many Blessings for the Holidays, friends!)

As the year draws to a close, muid as Éireannach teach, (we of the Irish House) wish our good friends, an Albanach, (the Scots) a most wondrous, happy and healthy New Year! We all have much to be grateful for this year: the merriment, each other's company, the opportunity to be creative with a strong focus on making history come alive, lots of challenges and success, good friendship, excellent craftwork and exquisite costuming and the constantly changing scenery that makes our chosen avocation so interesting. There are many fíne moments we all shall carry with us through the long winter months when the cold wind blows, but the heart fires still warm our souls.

As Head of the Irish Household, I am especially grateful to those in the Irish House who stepped forward to hold the clan together in my absence as I attended to higher educational duties or was under the weather: Lady Morianne McDonnell, my steady second and Irish Court secretary and Lady Noirín ní Briain, the ever cordial stand-in, putting a pretty face and smile on Irish duties. Both these ladies have been highly devoted to helping keep the Irish together and ensuring a presence at each Fáire. Many, many thanks!!

I am especially proud of our Captain Máitíu de Fáioite, who has shown great spirit as leader of the Fightin' Irish. Pittsburg Fáire was an absolute highlight for the Irish as Captain Máitíu led our boys to victory by capturing the flag of the cursed Sasanach (English). We tipped a few pints for that one!

Lord Naccadin an Conchobar has shown truly remarkable skill in creating men's Irish fashions, with great attention to timely detail. His work is truly unique and like the rest of Irish fashion, is in a world of its own. Well done! He has also supplied us with wondrous friends for Fáire and added greatly to the fightin' Irish spirit.

As ever, our lovely Mistress Kathleen ní Briain did wow us with her ever improving gorgeous voice and heartfelt renditions and we all can see a long talented future in store for her.

Our Mistress Maire de Fáioite is one of the brightest stars in the Irish heavens, as we've seen her Irish spirit grow and lend itself to acting, helping around camp and serving Her Majesty with great honor and courage. We also send our love to the entire de Fáioite clan, Lady Sharron, Master Donal and Mistress Bridgid and always appreciate their presence.

I also extend my deep gratitude for all the wondrous páistí (children) who watched over the Irish Hound, Lady Bratwurst. Your loving attention to her needs when I was needed elsewhere is highly appreciated and she gives you all lots of kisses!

We also deeply thank our Guild Master, Sir Drew MacQuain, who gave the Irish such encouragement in the writing (and on-going rewriting) of "Behold the Fate of Shane the Proud", a script in the works for a play about the real life controversial Chieftain who dared to defy Queen Elizabeth and paid dearly with his life. Sir Drew's strong support was a real vote of confidence in keeping an Irish presence in St. Andrew's and it truly meant a lot to all of us, giving us much pride in our heritage. We were all moved to see many good Scots actively take part in the play. Though it still needs work, we all hope to see it to fruition.

We Irish are proud to work together to represent our fíne Isle of Destiny and its incredible history. We strive to keep our language alive to the best of our abilities, our fashion better illustrated, our hospitality always welcoming and our hearts ever strong. We thank St. Andrew's for a place to call home. We hope many more Irish will join us!

❧A Missive from the Assitant Guild Master❧

Greetings good Gentles of St. Andrews,

What a glorious year we have had – never before have we seen such a welcome from the public and the faire boards at the locations we did progress to this year! It is because of you that we have shared in so much success! Thank you all for being so dedicated, for giving of your time and energy, and for your love of this wonderful hobby!

Many fond memories were made this past year, I hope that you find yourself smiling over them as we head into the winter months! For me ~ fond memories of Calaveras where one feels like they've stepped out of the mists and into the 16th century again after being away for far too long. Campbell was a merry event that took little effort with huge rewards of smiling children and happy visitors of all ages. Pittsburg – with the ad-libbing on stage with the Queen's Suitor show, I smile over that every time! And Pleasanton; my son Clark's baptism, Dame Bonnie's feast – and how everyone pitched in to help, the speech given by Keegan (with microphone) as Bruce on the battle field! There's so many (and I wasn't even at all of the events this year!!) I hope you take time to think of the happy times you shared in this year. Fond memories – may they keep you warm and happy until we band together in 2005 for another season of progress with Her Royal Majesty.

Next year looks to be just as glorious – if not more so! We're adding events to our schedule, so as to keep our family together and enjoying our Renaissance lives even more! This will all begin in February with Opening of Parliament – so mark your calendars now. And start thinking about training! The symposium in January – and St. Andrew's training starting in February. I can not express how important these are for everyone to attend. We all need to continuously improve our skills, expand our knowledge, and share with each other our experience. Do not think that many years of experience gives anyone leave to by-pass trainings – we need everyone to attend so as to make St. Andrews the best that we can be.

My sincere wishes to each of you, and your families for a joyous holiday season, and a safe and happy New Year! It has been my honor, and pleasure working with all of you this past year – and I'm looking forward to 2005!

GOD SAVE ST. ANDREWS!!
GOD SAVE SCOTLAND!!
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!!

I do remain, your loyal Assistant Guild Mistress,
Her Grace, Dame Bronwynne Alexandra Melville
